2005 Season WRAP-UP

Mick's comeback event from injury was done in style when he won event 1 of the season on the Gold Coast by downing Rookie Chris Ward in the final.

Mick surfed in 12 finals for the season with wins on the Gold Coast and the Search event on Reunion Island. He also placed second to Andy Irons at Pipeline in the final event of the season to finish a career high 3rd position on the ASP table. Mick also had a 3rd at Trestles and a 5th in Japan.

During a season of great highs for the Coolly Kid he surfed his 150th Dream Tour heat, he also posted his 100th Dream Tour heat win in round 3 of the Pipeline Masters where he finished 2nd to A.I.

He posted 5 scores over 17.00 for the season with a season highest 17.77 in round 3 of event 1 of the season, the second heat of his 43 heats surfed during 2005.
